

The 2nd Shanghai Summit Meeting on Chemical Regulations in China, Korea and Japan

We would like to invite you to participate in the 2nd "Shanghai Summit Meeting on Chemical Regulations in China, Korea and Japan" held in Shanghai on 24-25 October 2012.

CIRS, KTR and JEMAI are jointly planning the 2nd "2012 Shanghai Summit Meeting on Chemical Regulations in China, Korea and Japan". The topics of this summit include chemical registrations in China, Korea, Japan, Taiwan and Europe, risk assessment, GHS implementation and supervision of the import and export of chemicals in China, Korea and Japan. This summit is aimed at assisting collaboration between the three countries, building transparent sharing of regulatory updates and enforcement measures, and promoting the safety and sustainability of chemical industry in Asia-pacific region.

We are pleased to announce that top officials from main regulatory authorities in China, Korea and Japan will address all participating companies about their distinctive regulatory systems and the latest legislative development during this summit meeting. We have also invited special guests from the European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) and the Safety and Health Technology Center (SATECH) of Taiwan to share the latest updates of EU REACH and Taiwan's draft new substance notification policies.

Last year, more than 200 delegates have participated in this summit. We sincerely look forward to your attendance again! We feel through your involvement in the summit, we can come closer to achieving our goal.

Your sincerely,

Summary of Summit

During this summit, chemical regulatory authorities from China, South Korea, Japan, Taiwan and Europe are going to address all participating companies about their distinctive regulatory systems and the latest legislative development.

By attending this summit, participants could:

- acquire the most authoritative chemical regulatory interpretation and enforcement information from China, South Korea, Japan and Taiwan;
- gain plenty of opportunity to talk face to face to the competent authorities of the three countries and raise their challenges;

Agenda

Simultaneous interpretation is available for four languages: Chinese, Korean, Japanese and English. This agenda is updated on 20 July 2012 and might change later. We apologize for any inconvenience due to the change of agenda.
