Chemical Notification Types in Malaysia

required to retain the data used to make their GHS assessment for a minimum of 5 years, or For some substances may be unable to carry out a GHS classification ,submit all of the available data, including tonnage, and submit them to the DOE with an explanation of why it was not possible to assign a GHS classification

Chemical Notification Deadline in Malaysia

Annual Tonnages (MT)	Year of Implementation of EHS Notification
	2009-2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017
> 100	Voluntary Notification and Registration	/+	/+
10 - 100		/+	/+
1 - 10		/+	/+
0.1 - 1		/+	/+
All substances that, under GHS classification, are assigned an aquatic toxicity classification of "chronic 1" (*) or are suspected or known human carcinogens, reproductive toxicants or mutagens (+) must also be notified during years 2010 and 2012.								